Part 3: Consent of adjoining or affected landholders

Before you lodge an application, you are required to discuss the proposal to purchase the Council road with adjoining and/or other affected landowners, as well as any government authority responsible for the management of affected land or waterways. If agreement cannot be reached with the affected landholders, Council may still accept an application without all consents provided an explanation is given as to why you have not been able to obtain consent. The access issues will be assessed and determined by the Council when we begin processing the application.

List the names of all known landholders likely to be affected by the sale of Council roads subject to this application.
